Marriage or Relationship With a Significant Other

If you want someone who will eat whatever you put in front of him and never say it's not quite as good as his mother's

then adopt a bulldog.

If you want someone always willing to go out, at any hour,
for as long and wherever you want

then adopt a bulldog.

If you want someone who will never touch the remote, doesn't care about football, and can sit next to you as you watch romantic movies

..then adopt a bulldog.

If you want someone who is content to get on your bed just to warm your feet and whom you can push off if he snores

..then adopt a bulldog !

If you want someone who never criticizes what you do, doesn't care if you are pretty or ugly, fat or thin, young or old, who acts as if every word you say is especially worthy of listening to, and loves you unconditionally, perpetually ..

..then adopt a bulldog.

BUT, on the other hand, if you want someone who will never come when you call, ignores you totally when you come home, leaves hair all over the place, walks all over you, runs around all night and only comes home to eat and sleep, and acts as if your entire existence is solely to ensure his happiness

..then adopt a cat!

You thought I was gonna say... marry a man, didn't you?

“Just” a Dog

“From time to time, people tell me, “lighten up, it’s just a dog”, or, “that’s a lot of money for just a dog”. They don’t understand the distance traveled, the time spent, or the costs involved for “just a dog”. Some of my proudest moments have come about with “just a dog”. Many hours have passed and my only company was “just a dog”, but I did not once feel slighted. Some of my saddest moments have been brought about by “just a dog” and in those days of darkness, the gentle touch of “just a dog” gave me comfort and reason to overcome the day. If you, too, think it’s “just a dog”, then you will probably understand phrases like “just a friend”, “just a sunrise”, or “just a promise”. “Just a dog” brings into my life the very essence of friendship, trust, and pure unbridled joy. “Just a dog” brings out the compassion and patience that makes me a better person. Because of “just a dog” I will rise early, take long walks and look longingly to the future. So for me and folks like me, it’s not “just a dog” but an embodiment of all the hopes and dreams of the future, the fond memories of the past, and the pure joy of the moment. “Just a dog” brings out what’s good in me and diverts my thoughts away from myself and the worries of the day. I hope that someday they can understand that it’s not “just a dog” but the thing that gives me humanity and keeps me from being “just a human.” So the next time you hear the phrase “just a dog”, just smile, because they “just don’t understand”.

One, two, three, four...ready or not here I COME!

Can't clean my ears if you can't find them!

Bulldogs? No bulldogs here.

The latest in home décor'

If I can't see them, they can't see me.

Pay no attention to the Bulldog behind the curtain...."

Are you SURE this is the confession box ?

Be vewwy, vewwy quiet, I'm hunting wabbits.

No one will find me here.

I am NOT a watchdog!

You might be able to hear me but you can't see me.

ahhh, a little sun makes me sleepy, kinda like a tanning booth.

Do Not Disturb.....No Bull

Bath time, no way. Mom will never find me here.",

I love playing hide and go seek.
